DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The present status (whether patented or abandoned) of the parent application must be stated.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-2 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1-2 and 5 are indefinite because the language of "existent ratio" is not clearly defined. It is not clear whether this language refers to the ratio of B to N in the boron nitride layer or the ratio of B to Si in the silicon carbide fiber or the total amount of B present in silicon carbide fiber with boron nitride coating. Accordingly, the metes and bounds for which patent protection is being sought are not clear.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by applicants' admission on pages 16-17, section [0055] of the specification, Sacks, 6,040,008.

Applicants' admission on pages 16-17, section [0055] of the specification discloses a process of Sacks '008 that comprises melt-spinning polycarbosilane with an organic boron compound, infusibilizing the fiber and sintering in a nitrogen-containing atmosphere. The organic boron compound is of the type contemplated by applicants in claims 7 and 9. Hence, the disclosed prior art process of Sacks '008 anticipates the invention as claimed in present claims 6-9.

Claims 6-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sacks 6,203,904 B1.

Sacks teaches a process for producing silicon carbide fiber comprising melt-spinning polycarbosilane with an organic boron compound, infusibilizing the fiber and sintering in a nitrogen-containing atmosphere, wherein the organic boron compound is of the type contemplated by applicants in claims 7 and 9. See abstract and Example 1. Therefore, the teachings of Sacks anticipate the invention as claimed in present claims 6-9.

Double Patenting

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 1-9 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-9 of copending Application No. 10/981,525. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

No claims are allowed.
